PART 1: EXPLANATORY NOTES

1.1 Introduction

Australian Gambling Statistics is the official collection of Australian data on legalised regulated gambling for which accurate figures are available. The Australian Gambling Statistics publication is produced by the Queensland Government Statistician's Office (QGSO) in cooperation with all state and territory governments. QGSO is a part of Queensland Treasury and is the principal demographic and social statistics research agency for the Queensland Government.

1.2 Scope of the publication

The 33rd edition of Australian Gambling Statistics updates data for the financial years 1990–91 to 2015–16. The publication comprises statistics on turnover, expenditure and government revenue from gambling activities conducted in Australian states and territories. It is important to note that the statistics for each individual state or territory include turnover and expenditure generated by overseas and interstate visitors as well as those generated by residents of that state or territory.

All dollar figures are given in nominal terms except where a table is denoted as being in real terms. See Glossary item 'CPI deflator' for an explanation of how real dollar figures are calculated for the purpose of this publication.

1.3 Background

The development of a database of statistics on gambling on a national basis was formally proposed at the June 1983 Conference of Government Racing Officials held in Darwin. The conference agreed to draw attention to the relative absence of reliable economic and social data on gambling, and resolved that this information be collected, collated and shared on a national basis.

Led by the existing statistical collections of the (then) Tasmanian Racing and Gaming Commission, it was recommended that the racing and gaming administrations of other state and territory governments develop their own statistical base to assist in the development of a national gambling statistical record.

At the September 1983 Racing and Gaming Ministers' Conference held in Melbourne, it was resolved:

That the Conference approve the establishment of a National Statistical Data Bank and each state and territory agree to submit all available racing and gaming statistics in a consistent format to the Tasmanian Racing and Gaming Commission for collation and analysis. A report is to be presented detailing the data to each Minister. A review of the effectiveness of this service will be undertaken at the next Racing and Gaming Ministers' Conference.

In line with the conference resolution the Commission, with the assistance of a firm of economic consultants, extracted from published records a significant quantity of data relating to gambling turnover in each state and territory since 1972. This information was circulated to each state and territory for the purposes of correction and the addition of data that were not readily obtainable from available sources.

The first consolidation and assessment of these data was produced for the Racing and Gaming Ministers' Conference in late 1984. At the Commission's request, it was subsequently approved that the report be made publicly available. The Tasmanian Gaming Commission continued to produce annual statistics until 2004, when the Queensland Government Statistician's Office (formerly the Office of Economic and Statistical Research), within Queensland Treasury, was endorsed by jurisdictional CEOs to produce the publication on an ongoing basis.

1.4 Glossary

Bookmakers off-course: These figures relate to the amount wagered via off-course bookmakers. In Tasmania it represents the figure for sports betting or amounts wagered on events other than horse racing or greyhound racing.

Bookmakers on-course: These figures relate to the amount wagered via bookmakers at the race track on both horse and greyhound racing. A player can wager any amount above a set minimum and will receive the bookmaker's odds at the time of making the wager. Those odds stand, irrespective of whether the bookmaker alters the odds at a later time. Bookmakers are licensed in each jurisdiction.

Casino gaming: The various figures reported under this heading represent wagers at casinos and include wagers on table games, gaming machines and keno systems.

Casino turnover: The casino turnover figure is actually a combination of handle and turnover. Turnover is the amount wagered on a gambling activity whereas handle is a term used to describe the amount of money exchanged for gaming chips at a gaming table. It is difficult, if not impossible, to record the amount of each wager made on a table game. Therefore it is difficult to report casino turnover accurately. Hence, the only amount that can be reported for table games is handle. Readers are therefore urged to use casino turnover figures with care.

Consumer Price Index (CPI): The price index used as the deflator for conversion of current year (nominal) values to real values is the Consumer Price Index (CPI) All Groups weighted average of eight capital cities. The CPI is a measure of change over time in the retail price of a constant basket of goods and services which is representative of consumption patterns of employee households in metropolitan areas. This index for each year is set out in Table 1. CPI data for the period 1990–91 to 2015–16 were derived from data from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS).

Expenditure (gross profit): These figures relate to the net amount lost or, in other words, the amount wagered less the amount won, by people who gamble. Conversely, by definition, it is the gross profit (or gross winnings) due to the operators of each particular form of gambling.

Football Pools (Pools): The Pools is a numbers game of chance where the winning numbers are based on the results of the United Kingdom or Australian soccer matches.

Each week, 38 soccer matches are selected to form a 'match list'. Each match is assigned a number from 1 to 38. The results of the matches are then collected and ranked, with scored draws ranked highest and home score wins ranked lowest. The six highest-ranked match numbers are then used as the official results numbers for the Pools draw. There is also a supplementary number selected, which is the seventh-highest ranked match result. To play the Pools, players select six numbers from the 38. If the selected numbers are the same as the official results numbers, the player wins one of the five prize divisions.

The Pools is administered by SA Lotteries on behalf of the Australian Soccer Pools Bloc. The Bloc was formed in June 1989 by lottery jurisdictions in Australia. Its purpose is to promote the game of Soccer Pools and produce accurate and uniform prize pools and dividends for subscribers to the game.

Gambling: The placement of a wager or bet on the outcome of a future uncertain event. In this document, gambling includes lawful gaming, racing and sports betting activities. The statistics presented in this publication are for legalised regulated gambling for which accurate figures are available, and hence do not represent turnover or expenditure on all forms of gambling.

Gaming: All legal forms of gambling other than racing and sports betting, such as lotteries, poker and gaming machines, casino gaming, football pools, interactive gaming and minor gaming (which is the collective name given to raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes and the like).

Gaming machines: All jurisdictions, except Western Australia, have a state-wide gaming machine (poker machine) network operating in clubs and/or hotels. The data reported under this heading do not include gaming machine data from casinos.

Gaming machines accurately record the amount of wagers played on the machines. So turnover is an actual figure for each jurisdiction. In most jurisdictions operators must return at least 85 per cent of wagers to players as winnings, either by cash or a mixture of cash and product. Gaming machines may be linked together in order to offer major jackpots.

Government revenue: The revenue received by state governments from gambling activities that are subject to state taxes and levies.

Household disposable income (HDI): This is defined as gross household income less income tax payable, other current taxes on income, wealth etc., consumer debt interest, interest payable by unincorporated enterprises and dwellings owned by persons, net non-life insurance premiums and other current transfers payable by households.

Information on HDI by state and territory has been derived from data taken from the ABS. Data on HDI were taken from the revised ABS series on 'Household gross disposable income', reported by state and territory in the Australian National Accounts: State Accounts for the 1990–91 to 2015–16 period.

When interpreting gambling figures as a proportion of HDI by state and territory, users of the data should note that such data represent expenditure within the jurisdiction concerned, and do not adjust for interstate or international gamblers. No relevant data are collected on interstate gamblers.

(a) Original data

Instant lottery: Commonly known as ‘scratchies’, where a player scratches a coating off the ticket to identify whether the ticket is a winner. Prizes in the instant lottery are paid on a set return to player and are based on the number of tickets in a set, the cost to purchase the tickets, and a set percentage retained by the operator for costs. The operation of instant lotteries is the same as for lotteries.

Interactive gaming: Defined as gambling on activities conducted via the internet. It specifically excludes wagering in the form of racing and sports betting, and lotteries via the internet. Interactive gambling services provided to Australian residents by an internet casino are banned under the Commonwealth Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (IGA) which came into effect in August 2001.

Keno (clubs and hotels): A computerised keno system operates in clubs and hotels in New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria, Tasmania and the Australian Capital Territory. In 1998–99, Keno was introduced into Star City Casino (Sydney). Keno is a game where a player wagers that their chosen numbers match any of the 20 numbers randomly selected from a group of 80 numbers via a computer system or a ball-draw device. In most states, Keno is linked to all venues within a particular jurisdiction, enabling the operator to offer large jackpot prizes. Keno has a fixed pay scale such that the payout for each wager is established by rules and is independent of the total wagers made on the game.

Lotteries: Lotteries are conducted Australia-wide by both government and commercial operators. There are three components to a lottery: the purchase of a ticket, a draw and a prize. A person whose ticket is selected in a lottery wins a prize based on the total amounts wagered after deduction of a set percentage by the operator to cover costs. Lottery tickets are sold at various outlets around Australia, such as newsagents. The same operators may also conduct Lotto, Pools and instant lottery.

Lotto: The figures reported in this section cover a variety of lottery games, commonly known as Tattsлото, Gold Lotto, Lotto, X-Lotto or Powerball, depending on the jurisdiction. Lotto is a game where a player selects any six numbers from 1 to 45 in anticipation that those numbers will be among eight numbered balls, randomly drawn from a ball-draw device containing 45 balls numbered from 1 to 45. The first six of the eight balls drawn are known as the 'winning numbers' and the last two balls are called 'supplementary numbers'.

There are five prize divisions, with Division 1 being the major prize. The prize payout for each division is dependent on the amount of wagers made, less the operator's costs. A player wins if their selected numbers match those randomly drawn in a set combination.

Minor gaming: The collective name given to raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes and the like.

On-course totalisator: These figures relate to the amount wagered on a racetrack, during race meetings, or at authorised auditoria.

Population: Population data from the ABS have been used to calculate the figures presented in the per capita tables. These population data exclude all persons under the age of 18 years. The per capita calculations are undertaken by dividing the relevant financial data for a given financial year by the mean resident population aged 18 years and over in the region during the relevant financial year. Mean estimates for the populations of the states and territories for the period 1990–91 to 2015–16 are presented in Table 3. Note that the same caveat relating to the influence of visitors to a state on the estimates reported in the HDI tables is also relevant to the interpretation of the estimates reported in the per capita tables.

Racing betting: Within the context of this report, racing betting comprises legal betting with bookmakers and totalisators, both on racecourses and off-course (TAB). It is related to betting on the outcome of horse and greyhound races.

'Real' variables: Refers to data that have had the effects of inflation removed. This is achieved by specifying a base year (in this instance 2015–16) and 'deflating' each previous year by the CPI (see Table 1). This means that all data in a table showing real values may be compared directly, the effects of inflation having been removed.

Revised figures: Figures with a 'revised' (R) notation detail data that have been revised from the previous edition of the Australian Gambling Statistics publication.

Sports betting: The wagering on approved types of local, national or international sporting activities (other than the established forms of horse and greyhound racing), whether on or off-course, in person, by telephone, or via the internet.

Totalisator Agency Board (TAB): This form of wagering is Australia-wide and is the amount wagered at TAB outlets (other than those on a race track). Totalisator wagering is where a player makes a 'unit' wager (a unit being any multiple of 50 cents or one dollar depending on the jurisdiction). Totalisator betting is sometimes called pari-mutuel betting. The operator deducts a percentage of the total units wagered (for costs including tax), and the remainder is returned as dividends (winnings) to players in multiples of the unit wagered.

In several jurisdictions, the TAB has been privatised. There are three TAB pools: the Victorian pool (known as the SuperTAB, to which Tasmania, Australian Capital Territory and Western Australia are parties), the New South Wales pool, and the Queensland pool (to which South Australia and the Northern Territory are parties). Each jurisdiction retains the deductions from wagers made in that particular jurisdiction.

Turnover: An expression used to describe the amount wagered. This does not include any additional charges that may also be paid at the point of purchase, such as selling agents' commission in the case of lotteries (except where noted in tables).

Wagering: All legal forms of gambling on racing and sporting events.

1.5 Overview of gambling data

Sources of data

State and territory government racing and gaming authorities were approached to provide actual data on turnover, expenditure and government revenue, for each form of gambling within their jurisdiction. Where actual data were not available, the relevant authorities were encouraged to make estimates of the unavailable statistics and provide both these estimates and explanations of the estimation methods. The methods that have been used to estimate missing values are elaborated upon in section 1.6.

Legislative restrictions preclude several jurisdictions from releasing data until the close of the calendar year relating to the statistics. Users should note that the statistics are not available until after this period.

Goods and services tax

On 1 July 2000, the goods and services tax (GST) replaced wholesale sales tax, which was applied at varying rates to a range of products. The GST is a broad-based tax of ten per cent on most supplies of goods and services consumed in Australia. This includes gaming products. Therefore, the gaming tax revenue figures shown in this publication from 2000–01 onwards are not comparable with those of preceding years.

Relevant legislation

Gambling policy and legislation in Australia has traditionally been the role of the states and territories rather than the Commonwealth. Relevant state-based legislation is detailed in state and territory summaries in section 1.6.

The following table provides an overview of the types of gambling that are legally permitted and currently being undertaken by Australian residents and overseas visitors in each state and territory.

- Betting Tax Act 2001
- Casino Control Act 1992
- Charitable Fundraising Act 1991
- Gambling (Two-Up) Act 1998
- Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007
- Gaming Machines Act 2001
- Gaming Machines Tax Act 2001
- Liquor Act 2007
- Lotteries and Art Unions Act 1901
- Public Lotteries Act 1996
- Betting and Racing Act 1998 (formerly the Racing Administration Act 1998)
- Registered Clubs Act 1976
- Totalizator Act 1997
- Unlawful Gambling Act 1998.

New developments

- The proclamation of the Racing Administration Amendment (Sports Betting National Operational Model) Act 2014, on 18 December 2015, changed the name of the Racing Administration Act 1998 to the Betting and Racing Act 1998, and commenced the amending Act. The provisions in the amending Act regulate betting on sporting events in line with the National Policy on Match-Fixing in Sport.
- The Racing Administration Amendment Regulation 2015 commenced on 18 December 2015. The Regulation allows the Minister for Racing to make (on application by a licensed bookmaker or licensee under the Totalizator Act 1997) an order prescribing a sporting event as a declared betting event (or permitting a new type of bet on a sporting event that has been so prescribed). If there is a sports controlling body for the sporting event, the Minister cannot make the order unless satisfied that an integrity agreement is in place between the sports controlling body and the bookmaker or licensee who applied for the order. The Minister must also be satisfied that the sports controlling body has been consulted and does not oppose the making of the order.
- On 1 July 2015 the Betting Tax Legislation Amendment Act 2015, commenced. It reduces, in stages, the rates of betting tax payable by totalizator licensees and the payment of amounts to or on behalf of racing controlling bodies in connection with the reduction. The changes to the tax rates were made to achieve parity with Victoria and to ensure the ongoing viability and competitiveness of the NSW racing industry by returning the money freed up by the new tax rates to each racing controlling body.

- On 6 October 2015 the NSW Minister for Racing approved of amendments to TAB Limited's Totalizator Licence Conditions and to the Totalizator Betting Rules, which allow TAB Limited to enter into pooling arrangements as a 'guest' with the Hong Kong Jockey Club, and to extend the jackpot accumulation period for certain bet types from two to twelve months.
- On 22 June 2016, pursuant to section 37A of the Public Lotteries Act 1996, the NSW Minister for Racing approved the expansion of the Keno Jackpot Pooling Agreement between NSW and Victoria to include the ACT.

New developments

Introduction on YourPlay pre-commitment system

In 2010, the Victorian Government committed to implementing a voluntary pre-commitment system. In 2014, the Gambling Regulation Amendment (Pre-commitment) Act 2014 established the current legislative framework for pre-commitment.

The Victorian pre-commitment scheme, YourPlay, was introduced on all gaming machines in Victoria on 1 December 2015. Victoria is the first state in Australia to implement a state-wide networked pre-commitment scheme for gaming machines. YourPlay is also the first state-wide networked voluntary pre-commitment scheme to be implemented worldwide on this scale, which has generated considerable interest both nationally and internationally.

YourPlay is an important harm minimisation and consumer protection measure available to players of gaming machines in Victoria. It enables people to make informed decisions about their gaming machine play and can assist patrons to stay in control of their gambling behaviour. The objective of the scheme is to minimise gambling-related harm by providing a tool to assist players to control their gambling and avoid it escalating into harmful levels of play. It is compulsory for all gaming venues, including the Melbourne Casino, to have YourPlay available on all gaming machines but voluntary for players to use.

Players can use YourPlay to set limits on the time and/or money they spend playing gaming machines and to track their expenditure on gaming machines across the state. Players who use YourPlay receive regular updates about their spending and how they are tracking against their limits as they play, with the aim that this will help them adhere to those limits. Players can also access detailed information and reports about their playing activity and limits at kiosks in venues, privately online or via the YourPlay helpline.

Surrender of lottery licence held by Intralot Australia Pty Ltd

The Victorian Category 2 Public Lottery Licence held by Intralot Australia Pty Ltd was surrendered on 31 January 2015. At the same time, the Victorian Category 1 Public Lottery Licence held by Tattersall's Sweeps Pty Ltd was amended to allow Tattersall's to conduct the non-bloc lotteries previously conducted by Intralot, including instant lotteries.

Keno pooling

The Victorian keno licensee was approved to enter into keno linked jackpot arrangements for the Keno Classic Game in 2015 and 2016. These arrangements enable the Victorian licensee to create a common jackpot prize pool with the keno operators in New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory and Queensland.

The legislation ratifies the Queen's Wharf Casino agreement for the new Queen's Wharf Casino, which is expected to be operational by 2022, with the existing Treasury Casino to cease operating shortly after. The new casino licence will be subject to an initial geographical exclusivity for 25 years. Gambling reforms

Statutes Amendment (Gambling Measures) Bill 2015

As reported in the last edition, following the gambling reforms which came into effect on 1 July 2014 and which incorporated in a suite of significant amendments passed by parliament in 2013, the South Australian Government conducted a further review into gambling-related legislation to identify whether there was a need to further fine tune the statutory framework applying to the gambling sector.

Consequently, the Government introduced the Statutes Amendment (Gambling Measures) Bill 2015 (the Bill) into Parliament in March 2015 to fine tune some provisions in the Gaming Machines Act 1992, the Independent Gambling Authority Act 1995, the Lottery and Gaming Act 1936 and the Problem Gambling Family Protection Orders Act 2004.

The Bill was passed in parliament and received assent on 1 October 2015.

The changes which came into effect on 1 January 2016 are summarised below:

- Gaming machine layouts no longer require the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner's approval

As a red tape reduction measure it was determined that gaming machine layouts no longer require the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner's approval.

It is still a licence condition that licensees must not make any structural or other alterations within a gaming area on the licensed premises except with the approval of the Commissioner.

- Integrity checks for gaming managers and gaming employees

As a red tape reduction measure, part of the 2013 gambling reforms, gaming managers and gaming employees no longer require the approval of the Commissioner to work at a gaming machine venue. Instead, licensees now notify the Commissioner of the appointment of gaming managers and gaming employees using the Barring and Online Employee Notification (BOEN) system.

In order to ensure integrity checks can be made by the Commissioner of Police, an amendment was made to the Gaming Machines Act to allow for the sharing of information between the Commissioner and the Commissioner of Police. This allows access to the BOEN system by SA Police staff so they can review all notifications of persons as gaming managers or gaming employees.

The Commissioner of Police can now review notifications of the appointment of gaming managers and gaming employees retrospectively and into the future and is now able to provide the Commissioner with any relevant information on a person.

If there is any adverse information about a person, the Commissioner has the power to prohibit that person from carrying out the duties of a gaming manager or gaming employee, either permanently or for a specified period.

- Unlawful possession of gaming machines

It is unlawful to possess a gaming machine without being licensed to do so.

Over the past 18 months, Consumer and Business Services (CBS) and South Australia Police (SAPOL) raided several properties following reports that unlicensed persons were purchasing gaming machines to place in their private houses.

To further assist with enforcement capabilities, the Act was amended to make it an offence to purchase, or enter into a contract or agreement to purchase a gaming machine unless that person has a licence to possess gaming machines. This means that CBS and SAPOL are now able to take action following the transaction to purchase a gaming machine, rather than waiting for the person to take possession of it.

- Cash facilities within gaming areas

Prior to 1 January 2016 it was an offence for a licensee to provide any type of cash facilities within a gaming area.

This meant that gamblers wishing to withdraw extra cash had to leave the gaming room to access an ATM or EFTPOS facility. If the person opted to use an EFTPOS facility to do this, it is possible that the person may not have been assisted by a staff member who has been trained in the identification of problem gambling behaviours and low level interventions.

It was therefore considered that if the EFTPOS facility is provided within the gaming area, there would be more opportunity for appropriate low level intervention and referral by trained gaming staff if the person attempting to access extra cash is showing signs of having difficulties controlling their gambling.

Therefore, the prohibition for a licensee providing EFTPOS facilities within a gaming area was lifted so that trained gaming staff are now able to monitor a person's cash withdrawal behaviour and, if necessary, make an appropriate low level intervention.

ATMs are still not permitted to be provided within the gaming area and the $250 per card per 24-hour withdrawal limit still applies.

- Delegation of the Independent Gambling Authority's functions

The Independent Gambling Authority (IGA) is serviced by a small number of staff.

In order for the IGA to better manage its administrative arrangements, the Independent Gambling Authority Act 1995 was amended to extend the IGA's ability to delegate its powers and functions to any person or body. This means that the IGA can, for example, delegate any of its powers or functions which are similar to those performed by CBS, to CBS. The aim of this change is to facilitate a one-stop-shop arrangement for the gambling industry where appropriate.

The Board of the IGA remains independent from the Government.

- Playing of poker in a public place

The Lottery and Gaming Act 1936 broadly prohibits most forms of gambling. In recent times, there has been some uncertainty about gambling on poker in a public place.

From 1 January 2016, the Lottery and Gaming Act was amended to prohibit poker in a public place except where set out in the regulations. The Lottery and Gaming (Poker) Variation Regulations also commenced on 1 January 2016.

The forms of poker that can be played in a public place are:

- poker where no participant in the game could, as a result of playing or engaging, win any money or other prize.
- a general poker tournament that meets specific requirements set out in the regulations. A general poker tournament is similar to a sport tournament.
- a trade promotion poker tournament that meets specific requirements set out in the regulations. A trade promotion poker tournament is run to promote trade of a venue. It may include features that promote trade and move away from a common starting position for all participants. A trade promotion poker tournament is not a trade promotion lottery and no licence is required.

New developments

Amendments to the Gaming Machine Act 2004 commenced on 31 August 2015 as part of the ACT Government's gaming machine reform package. The changes introduced an open market trading scheme for gaming machine authorisations, underpinned by a new licensing and authorisation framework and a phased reduction in the number of gaming machines operating in the Territory.

General industry information

ACTTAB was purchased by Tabcorp ACT Ltd in October 2014 and, as part of the sale negotiations, it was agreed that the tax rate for Tabcorp ACT Ltd be set at zero percent. Tabcorp ACT Ltd now pays an annual licence fee as determined by the Minister.
