

Queensland counts, 2016

Queensland has 4,703,193 residents

4.0% of Queenslanders are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and 1,221,148 families living in 1,987,313 private dwellings

Our private dwellings and 604,269 had 4 or more bedrooms

1,015,875 of us were born overseas and 557,690 speak a language other than English at home

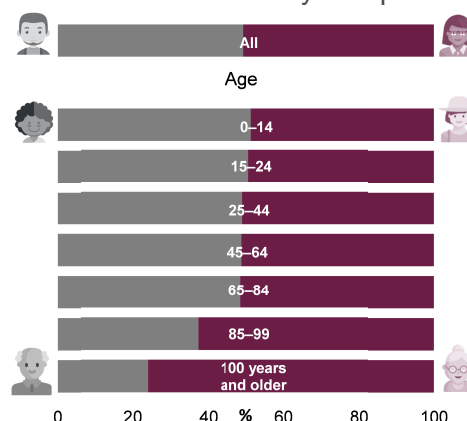

1,443,916 Queenslanders were studying, including 213,221 at the tertiary level

There are more families with children than without

As we age, there are more women than men

From age 85 to 99, there are 37 men and 63 women in every 100 persons

Note: Dwelling counts are by place of enumeration. All other data are by place of usual residence.